Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Essay Upon Single Vision With Two Eyes: Together With Experiments and Observations on Several Other Subjects in Optics The first comprehends those of Galen, Alhazen, Rohault, Dr. Briggs, and Sir Isaac Newton, all of whom have regarded the question I have mentioned as equivalent to the following one: Whence comes it, that the mind should be affected with only one perception from two impressions upon the external organs of fight, since either of those impressions is, of itself, sufficient to produce a similar perception? Their universal answer has been: Because the two impressions are united before they are communicated to the mind. And the only difference among these authors, has been with respect to the manner in which such an union takes place.To the second class are to be referred the opinions of those, who hold it as certain, that an object is seen single by both eyes, because it is seen by each of them in the same external place; and who profess to point out some law, or constant rule of vision, from which this sameness of place is to be derived as a neccessary consequence.
