Debs and codefendants in contempt proceedings went to jail last night in default of bail, although bail was offered them in court. Their purpose evidently was to create sympathy. A number of organizations last night protested against their commitment, but don t think violence will follow. Believe that marshal, police, and State troops can main-tain order, and thereby prevent interference with passage of mail and interstate commerce trains. Think Government troops can safely retire to Fort Sheridan. John W. Arnold. Edwin Walker. Thomas E. Milchrist. Teh-gram. Chicago, Iii., July 19,1894. Hon. Richard Olney-, Attorney-General, Washington, B. C. The marshal believed yesterday that his 1,200 deputies were sufficient and that there was no further danger of mob violence. It appears that...
