Brand New Book  Print on Demand .To you my decendents.I wish I could talk to you in person now about this book. Most of this book will keep me out of the doctrinal box of established denominations. Some would even prevent me from being a member of certain denominations.Harvey Nerness likes to fish, hunt, bike, fellowship, walk, read books, travel, drive antique and new cars, play board games, pray, work, collect old stuff, help others, give, praise God, quote the bible, hear the bible quoted, be with family, live life, be appreciated, be appreciative, love and be loved, talk about Jesus, fear God, follow the Holy Spirit s leading, play with the family dog, ride horses, go out to eat, talk to strangers, listen to Christians much older and more mature than himself for hours, people-watch, go to rummage sales, read the bible, sing, play musical instruments, write songs, write books, write encouraging notes and letters, fix things, read about new astronomy finds, swim long distances under water with eyes open, be alone with his wife, take warm showers on a cold day, be thankful, talk with his children and grandchildren much more than texting, remind himself of his blessings, smile, be a blessing, give God credit and thank Him, read books to people, dig into the bible, set goals, sell, buy, make an enemy into a new friend, try to understand why some hate God, absorb the good that comes from others, see others succeed, see others use their financial success to please God, see wisdom in children, observe understanding in the aged, witness knowledge used for God, and finally daydream very much about how wonderful heaven will be. Or if I...
