Excerpt: . to the sense--in the other He is present to the soul. The Shekinah which shone through the veil of Moses, now shines unveiled into the hearts of believers, giving them the light of the knowledge of God in the face of Christ Jesus. The conscious testimony of the Holy Spirit is the only satisfactory evidence of faith in Christ. The external evidence of the truth of Christianity may convince the intelligence of some men that the system has historical valid See Appendix G, --Bishop Taylor s Testimony. ity. The use of such evidence is proper in its place; and in the hands of those who understand its place and its comparative value it may be used with profit to others. But some have written on the evidences of Christianity that knew nothing themselves of the higher testimony. And many have believed the history of God manifest in the flesh, who never possessed the inward testimony produced by the faith which works by love and purifies the heart. Such men may discuss, with much learning and intellectual acumen, the dogma of theological sj stems: but it is written (1 Cor. xii. 3), and will be true for ever, that no man can say Jesus is the Christ but by the Holy Ghost. This view of the place and comparative value of miraculous and spiritual testimony ia The Spirit was not promised to testify of the canon of the Old Testament, or the Hagiography, or...
