It is a great effort for any voice to be heard in this hall, and if we are to have a successful discussion this morning, and get through with the business, you must all unite to that end. The first business is that of the Nominating Committee; the reports Election of of the temporary chairmen. I call on the Chairman of District No. 1. Nominating J. James R. Croes, M. Am. Soc. C. E.-- The members present from Committee. District No. 1 have directed me to present the name of Mr. Alfred W. Trotter as a member of the Nominating Committee. The President.-- Gentlemen, you hear the report of the Committee? What action do you take? W. R....
