Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A melt down: vile verbs and abrasive adjectives turned heads in a Manhattan restaurant. A man s voice vented obscenities upon a girl. A scream, martinis spilled, porcelain smashed, silver slithered. He yanked her up, Versace silk ripped. She bolted. The man bullied his way out of the eatery, shouted, quot;I ll be back.quot; The assailant, a British citizen, shoved his way into a cab, quot;JFK and floor it.quot; He purchased a flight to Brussels, now a fugitive. Father of the assaulted girl was beyond livid, a prominent citizen. He contacted the police top brass. quot;The creep threatened to come back, accost my daughter, out of your jurisdiction now. Should I retain a detective recently retired from your force, his professional reputation impeccable, Sean Sullivan?quot; Chief, quot;Good cop, respected, narcotics for years, worked undercover, tough. He certainly is capable of tracking the fugitive down, making an arrest.quot; Father, quot;I m not interested in an arrest. The guy vowed to return, attack my daughter again. I don t want him in this country, or planet, if you know what I mean.quot; Chief, quot;If you re implying what I think you are, don t tell me.quot; Father, quot;Whatever; someone must go to Europe, deal with him.quot; Chief, quot;You should know the odds of accomplishing the assignment are against Sullivan. The fugitive is well protected, insulated by wealth and social status. His family is a giant in the textile industry. The son represents the company in the fashion world, well known by everyone, pictures of him posed with all the top designers, dates the supermodels.quot; Father, quot;My daughter said the guy s a madman; he must not be...
