That the object of society is to protect individuals from wrong. 2. That those who cannot protect themselves are as much entitled to protection as those who can. 3. That children are as much entitled to protection as adults. 4. That education is as much a necessary to a child as food is. 5. That it is as much the duty of a parent to educate his child as it is to feed it 6. That a child is as much wronged by being left uneducated, as it is by being left unfed. 7. That it is as much the duty of the community to see that the child is educated as it is to see that it is fed. 8. That unless the community can and will compel the parent to feed the child, or to educate the child, the community must do so. 9. That the elementary education of a child costs not less than 30s. a year. 10. That there is no reason to believe that now, or at any time that can be defined, that sum is or will be obtainable from the parent 11. That it is the duty of the State to aid private benevolence in supplying the sum that is not obtainable from the parent 12. That we ought to recommend a system of State assistance for that purpose. 13. That such assistance, if provided by rates, will require at the lowest estimate a rate of two millions a year. 14. That such a tax would not be submitted to. 15. That it would renew the religious quarrels now much appeased. 16....
