Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Best Reading: Hints on the Selection of Books; On the Formation of Libraries, Public and Private; On Courses of Reading, Etc;, With a Classified Bibliography for Easy Reference The reviser of the present edition of The Best Reading had more or less to do with the plan and details of its first edition in 1872; and he regrets that his accomplished and excellent friend, Mr, George P. Putnam, is not still living, as he would assuredly be competent to improve this edition as much as he did that. The unusual success of the work, however, including the weighty testimony of at least one imitation which was remarkably close in point of arrangement and typography, has proved its practical usefulness. The object of this list is to guide libraries and private purchasers in buying books. For this purpose it names the best books usually now in the market, in the chief departments and on the leading topics of current and general literature, with their editions and retail prices.; This description of course excludes rare books and, as a rule, those that are out of print, as well as most of those of great cost. The following classes of books, with the exception of a few leading works of a general character, are also excluded by this plan: 1. Polemic theology; 2. Law books; 3. Sunday-school books; 4. Technical works in sciences, arts and trades; 5. School and similar text-books; 6. Many insignificant novels. It has also been intended to exclude what Mr. James Russell Lowell classifies as Literature suited to desolate islands. In preparing this list as it stands, various worthy objects have been contemplated...
