Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Columbia s Apostasy: With Other Poems and Essays Within the Feast of St. Michael, the Archangel, Philadelphia, May 10, 1899. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen. As one who has known the degradation resulting from the bondage of Satan and the slavery of sin; as one who has known the elevation and dignity and grandeur of the privileges of the child of God; as one who realizes that the conflict daily and hourly waged in the soul of the individual is the same as that being waged on a more extended scale in the soul of the nation; as one who has long since realized, with the Apostle Paul, that the conflict of men and of nations is not merely with flesh and blood, but with the invisible, superhuman, and supernatural agents of evil, with the principalities and powers of darkness in high places ; as one to whom it has been given to know, in a special manner, the mighty providence of God as manifested in the aid and assistance rendered us by benign and heavenly spirits in our conflict between good and evil, I speak to my fellow men. In this time of commemoration of the great commander of the heavenly forces, St. Michael the archangel, who cast fallen Lucifer as Satan out of heaven, I call upon all citizens of this great republic who still revere the name of Christ; upon all who exalt the name of Deity over the Satanic principle; upon all who are still lovers of good and haters of evil, to stand faithful to each other in the present...
