Colette D. Orr, Orr Novels Trademark. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 476 pages. Kirsten Jabard is a powerful and shrewd businesswoman. Shes smart, beautiful, classy, independent, God-fearing and very . Her career is going great and her life is good. Shes not the least bit interested in or marriage. That is, until she comes in contact with Mr. Jason B. Glaznyte, a rich, intelligent, and super fine business owner. Jason is everything Kirsten ever wanted in a man. Their relationship becomes magnetic and wildly addictive, but also extremely deceptive. Kirsten thinks they have something special, but soon discovers that the man shes in love with is only a faade. As lies and secret skeletons break down Jasons closet door, the wonderful romance theyre caught up in falls apart right before Kirstens eyes. Jasons web of deceit was so magnificent that Kirsten never realized she was caught in it, and now shes not even sure if she wants to be free. Jason is well aware of the power he has over Kirstens heart, so getting rid of him will not be an easy task. Kirsten makes sensible business decisions every day, but when it comes to Jason, she a total fool; all common sense goes right out the window. She wonders, How could this happen to me How did I not see this coming A talk with her mother is the one thing that can possibly help get Kirstens head back on her shoulders, but will Kirsten discover that she was the one who deceived herself, and maybe, just maybe, Jason was a fool as well Will Kirsten forgive Jason and give him another chance or does there come a point when love doesnt get any more second chances OVERVIEW This book mixes humor with everyday situations to reveal how easily...
