Res; 71 United States Senate, Committee on Military Affairs, Washington, D.C. The committee met at 10.30 o clock a.m. Present: Senators du Pont (chairman), Brown, Bristow, Foster, Chamberlain, and Hitchcock. Statement Of Maj. Gen. Arthur Murray, General Staff, Assistant To The Chief Of Staff. The Chairman. Gen. Murray, the Senate on the 16th instant passed this resolution: Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs be authorized and directed to investigate and report to the Senate its findings and recommendations upon the question presented in Senate Document Numbered Forty-two, involving the relative merits of divisional, as distinguished from departmental, headquarters in the military organization throughout the country. We have asked you to come before us to-day in order that you may give us your views in detail in regard to this whole question, on the relative merits of the divisional and departmental organizations. Gen. Murray. In explaining the relative merits of the divisional and departmental organizations, as requested by the chairman, I would first invite attention of the committee to Senate resolution 55, of June 1. In that resolution certain inquiries of the War Department are made; I will first read each inquiry in order as made in the resolution, and then answer it as far as I can. The Chairman. That is entirely satisfactory. Gen. Murray. The first inquiry in the resolution reads: That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, directed to furnish the Senate with a statement of the reasons for the proposed reestablishment of division headquarters in the Army....
