Heart of the West: 19 Short Stories (Paperback)

By O Henry

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 235 x 190 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There are nineteen short stories in this collection, some more and some less memorable. Romance among the cattle-royalty is a recurring feature, as are the adventures in love and scraps of the humbler cow-punching classes. All of them could be told as quick anecdotes over a campfire; maybe some of them were once. O Henry has polished them up to a high shine, peopled them with vivid characters, and wrung from them every drop of humour or pathos. As for the humour, Telemachus, Friend is the droll tale of a man whose staunch loyalty to his best friend prevents him courting their mutual crush without said best friend present, while Cupid a la Carte, narrated in hilariously grandiose style, tells the story of a man s battle to overcome his sweetheart s peculiar aversion to the eating habit. For sentimentality, try Christmas by Injunction, A Chaparral Prince, which plays on your heartstrings so obviously as to provoke indifference to the plight of its bathetic child heroine, or The Reformation of Calliope, which more pleasantly tells...
