Its place and collocation 1S as to legislation touching matters of an agricultural character in which the raising and encouraging the breeding of good horses is an important element. The object of the legislation appears to be to encourage fair dealing (if that is possible) in dealing with horses and to repress dishonesty when comparisons are being made as to speed and other qualities in the meetings of agricultural associations. These are matters of provincial cognizance, and do not trench on the region of criminal law in its constitutional sense. By the Ontario legislation as to agricultural societies, one of the objects contemplated by their establishment is to encourage improvement by importing and otherwise procuring animals of new and valuable kinds: R. S. O. 1897, ch. 43, sec. 9 (1); and by awarding premiums for excellence in the raising or...
