The book describes the authors adaptation to Indian culture and the challenges of practicing medicine in unpredictable circumstances. The slow but transforming process of becoming less an outsider in a foreign country is illustrated in stories about unique eating experiences, the realism of death, the threat of war, a rabies scare, and in the ability to develop meaningful friendships among people within the diverse cultures of NE India. The familys farewell to Assam reveals the extent to which they came to appreciate India as their home. Dr. Norton graduated from Colgate University and the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University. His surgical training took place in Cincinnati, Denver, and Lexington and Louisville, KY.
